Festival Rules - Drama

- A1. Age limits apply as at 31st August in the year of the Festival.
- A2. A copy of all script used by entrants must be passed to the Adjudicator at the beginning of the class. Copies must be clearly marked with the entrant's name and with the page number of the chosen piece.
- A3. Props must be limited to hand-held props, basic costume, a table and/ or chair(s).
- A4. A copy of each piece entered in the Composition class must be submitted to the Festival Chairman one month before the Festival.
- A5. Competitors may perform only once in each Solo class. In Duo and Group classes a Competitor may perform more than once in a class provided each performance is with a different partner(s).
- A6. Performances must not exceed the time limits stated in the schedule. The Committee reserves the right to stop a performance if it exceeds the stated class time limit (see General rule 6).
- A7. Copyright Compliance
Our group licence agreement with the CLA allows permission for:
- Speech & Drama Festivals to make a copy of dramatic works for use by the Adjudicator at a festival by photocopying, scanning or digitally copying owned content. The copy is retained and destroyed by the adjudicator immediately after the festival and marked "Adjudicator copy. Destroy after use".
 - The copy made should be no more than one complete chapter of a book or 5% of the publication, whichever is the greater.

Under the agreement with the Author's Licensing and Collecting Society, performers do not have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or solo dramatic items performed to a time limit of 10 minutes. Solo dramatic items must be announced with title and author at the time of the performance to qualify for copyright indemnity, and the performer must not change the words or gender of the character.

Duologues and group dramatic works (including Musical Theatre) are not covered by this agreement, and copyright for these items should be sought by performers at the time of entry.

 Composition classes must be performed on the day. However, the reading of the composition may be restricted at the Adjudicator's discretion on the day.

A copy of each composition must be submitted to the Festival Chairman one month before the Festival
